

"FREDDIE LOWnds"

SCENE 1

INT. HOTEL ROOM - DAY 1

Freddie's on the other end [REDACTED], sitting at her computer, going over records and crime scene photos on her hard drive.

START

FREDDIE

Freddie Lownds. I'm a journalist. We spoke once briefly, just after your sister Cassie's funeral.

WIDE ON SCREEN to see CHRIS SCREEN PHOTO of Cassie's corpse as it was found - propped up like a table top on antique legs. (NOTE: Although we know from the Pilot that Cassie was Marshall's victim, the media and general public believe she was killed by Garrett Jacob Hobbs.)

ON RICE, remembering her faintly and with some disdain.

RICE

Oh. Yeah. Look, I'm kinda busy here... Not really anything left to say--

FREDDIE

-- I just thought you'd wanna know that Abigail Hobbs has come out of her coma.

RICE takes in that news, silently, though his expression has shifted somewhat.

FREDDIE (CONT'D)

Since your sister was the only one of Garrett Jacob Hobbs' victims found, I was wondering if you had any comment on that?

RICE

(after a beat)

No.

FREDDIE

Oh look. Well, I just received information from a well-placed source that Abigail intends to return to her hometown, resume her life there.

RICE

Oh...?

FREDDIE

Oh how do you feel about the daughter of the maniac who cannibalized your little sister returning to the scene of the crime. Do you harbor resentment that she survived, while Cassie was mutilated, her lungs cut out of her --
