

INT. SALLY'S APT - NIGHT

Barry leaves an apology note about their break up, along with the apartment keys and his vision board. Sally enters the front door sobbing.

BARRY

I made something for you. You ok?

SALLY

I just really need to be alone right now.
please.

BARRY

Are you crying?

SALLY

No.

Sally sits on the couch.

BARRY

Hey. Is it okay if I'm comforting you.

SALLY

Okay.

BARRY

You ok?

SALLY

My show got cancelled

BARRY

What? why?

SALLY

Noone watched it.

BARRY

It just premiered last night

SALLY

I know. That fucking Banshee they are such cowards. Their jobs are totally pointless a computer makes their decisions.

BARRY

Oh my god. I'm so sorry. You worked so hard on that.

SALLY

Yeah, no shit. For them it was another show. For me it was everything. I just thought if I could tell that story then maybe my life might matter.

BARRY

Do you know where she lives?

SALLY

I don't know. What were you gonna send her an angry letter or something?

BARRY

No. Nothing like that. I was just gonna freak her out a little bit.

SALLY

Freak her out how ?

BARRY

There's a lot of ways, it's you know. Nothing bad. For instance I could send her a picture of herself sleeping just as a way of being like "Hey not cool what you did to Sally," ya know.

SALLY

So you'd break into her house?

BARRY

Oh she'd never know I was there. The whole point is to isolate her and make her feel like she's going insane. So I would just do little things. Like replace her dog with a slightly different dog or change the furniture in her house so she thinks she's shrinking. You know basic stuff mostly I learned in the military, some of it on a subreddit. You know... basically just plant a seed then they kind of hang themselves. Super non violent. But, by the end of it her brain will have essentially eaten itself. But, that's on the table if you want it. I'm just so sorry this happened to you. Can I make you some tea or something?

Sally realizes what Barry is.

SALLY

Barry, I need you to get away from me.
